Letter from the editor

Dear readers,

As the weather changes, I reflect on how much I continue to change too. I learn constantly from colleagues around me and share what I learn with others. I've been trying to use FaceBook and LinkedIn more often, since it has become so popular. In this newsletter, I've written a short article that will interest many organizations trying to increase their membership. I also thought you might wish to know some of the articles I've written and have included a list of the articles from previous newsletters. I hope these will assist you in learning more for your business, church, or organization.

As a contributor to the book "Success Simplified", I tell people what I've found to help me be more successful in life and what I think "success" really means. Please contact me about purchasing a copy of this book. It is available on major websites, but if you purchase one from me, it will have my photo on the cover with other successful speakers. It is available on my shopping cart on my website as well...very exciting!

In the next few months, my travel includes: Sacramento, CA; Las Vegas, NV; Daytona Beach, FL; Denver, CO; Reno, NV; and Sioux Falls, SD. For discounted speaking fees, I try to coordinate events and trainings. Please let me know about events in these and other areas, since I'm constantly adding cities to my itinerary.

Enjoy your spring,

Ardis Bazyn

Tips to Retain Members in Your Organization

Compiled by: Ardis Bazyn

I facilitate numerous conference calls, many with organizations wishing to find new members and retain them. Here are some tips I've learned from these calls and working with many nonprofit membership organizations.

1. Get new members involved in the organization as soon as possible. Request them to assist in some way. Some possibilities are:
 - Handling a birthday list
 - Reminder telephone calls to members
 - Writing in the newsletter
 - Planning a social event
 - Participating on a committee
 - Establish mentoring or buddy system
2. Communicate regularly with members. Some examples are:
 - An updated membership roster shared with members
 - An email mailing list to share information

- A phone tree for leaving phone messages reminding members of meetings or special events
 - A voice mail box that members can call to receive updated information or leave a message
 - Assigned someone to call those missing a meeting
 - Create an annual calendar listing all regular meetings and events
 - Record meetings for those unable to attend regularly
 - Create FaceBook, LinkedIn, and Twitter accounts for your group
3. Plan events or activities that welcome people of all ages and backgrounds. Some suggestions are:
- A mentoring program for new members
 - A monthly 50/50 raffle
 - Theater gatherings
 - Casino night
 - Anniversary or birthday celebration or picnic
 - Sporting events
 - Leadership training or how to sessions
 - Entrepreneurship round table
